

KPDA WEEKLY MEDIA REVIEW

Weekly Insights into Current Affairs Affecting the Kenyan Real Estate Market

Every Friday, we select a few media articles from the week that we think are worth your time as a player in the property development sector. We look for compelling articles not only about trends in the market, but also policy issues, upcoming technologies and global trends in real estate. We would love to hear from you on what you are engaged in to promote the sector. Contact us via admin@kpda.or.ke

THE PRESTIGIOUS INTERNATIONAL PROPERTY AWARDS 2015-2016

The International Property Awards are open to residential and commercial property professionals from around the globe. They celebrate the highest levels of achievement by companies operating in all sectors of the property and real estate industry. An International Property Award is a world-renowned mark of excellence.

The awards are split into regions covering Africa, Asia Pacific, Arabia, Canada, Caribbean, Central & South America, Europe, UK and USA. Participants enter at their relevant national level and are judged by a highly experienced team of professionals who cover the whole range of property disciplines. Companies selected as winners are then invited to attend a glittering awards dinner for each region and have the right to use the prestigious logo in their marketing. Read More

BILLIONS AT STAKE IN KENYA AS PRINTING OF TITLE DEEDS STOPS

The Standard | Standard Team | 6th May 2015

Industry players complained that the situation at Ardhi House is causing great anxiety in the property market with the Kenya Bankers Association (KBA) and the Kenya Property Developers Association (KPDA) saying the crisis is having a ripple effect on the market.

"KPDA is working closely with various sector and industry players to ensure that efficiency and effectiveness is restored in the Office of the Chief Land Registrar. We recognise that projects worth billions of shillings are stalled and hence our ongoing engagement with the public and private sector players," KPDA Executive Officer Elizabeth Wambui said.
