20^{THE}19 KPDA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

TUESDAY, 29TH OCTOBER 2019
RADISSON BLU HOTEL NAIROBI

The Kenya Property Developers Association cordially invites you to participate in the 2019 Conference set for Tuesday, 29th October 2019 at the Radisson Blu Hotel in Upperhill, Nairobi.

The theme of the Conference this year is “THE CHALLENGING KENYAN ECONOMY: PROSPECTS IN REAL ESTATE.” Discussions will encompass on how real estate sector players can plan their future, offer inspiration on not only preparing for uncertainty during these volatile times but to overcome, thrive and discover opportunity within.

This year the KPDA Conference will offer participants an experiential experience with panel sessions covering:

1. What 2020 Holds for the Property Sector
2. Alternative Funding Options
3. Developer Case Study on Overcoming Policy Obstacles and
4. Best Practices in the Sector

Experts in the field who will act as speakers and panelists will be drawn from professional consultant firms, leading real estate firms, policy makers and financiers.

In an effort to break away from the traditional and monotonous structure of conferences that has been the trend in the past, there will also be a Leads and Needs Networking Session that is built to be transactive in nature and result in effective business connections.

Sponsors will receive significant brand recognition and be exposed to unique face-to-face networking opportunities.

The audience will have the opportunity to spend quality time with top decision makers within the core market sectors of the property industry.

We look forward to hosting you to a symphony of outstanding real estate discussions.

INVITATION TO ATTEND AND PRESENT RESEARCH PAPERS DURING THE 2ND KESRA RESEARCH CONFERENCE

Kenya School of Revenue Administration

KRA/KESRA/HQ/96

28th August, 2019

Dear Sir/Madam,

INVITATION TO ATTEND AND PRESENT RESEARCH PAPERS DURING THE 2ND KESRA RESEARCH CONFERENCE

We are pleased to invite your organization to the 2nd KESRA Research Conference, scheduled for the 27th and 28th November, 2019 in Nairobi, on the theme “Embracing Tax and Customs Reforms for Effective Trade Facilitation.”

Kenya School of Revenue Administration (KESRA) is the pre-eminent training school of the Kenya Revenue Authority, specializing in Tax, Customs and Fiscal Policy. The School is accredited by the World Customs Organization (WCO) as a Regional Training Centre and is one of only four in East and Southern Africa. KESRA also hosts the African Academy on Tax and Financial crimes for the Organization of Economic Corporation and Development (OECD). It is also the regional training partner for the African Tax Administration Forum (ATAF)

Revenue Administrations in the world are increasingly adopting reforms to enable facilitate trade and ensure efficient and effective Administration of Revenue. The 2nd KESRA Research Conference 2019 presents the best of research and practice, emphasizing adoption of reforms in Tax and Customs Administration in order to respond to the dynamic business environment.

The conference theme is sub-divided into two main thematic areas of Tax and Customs Administration, covering the following topics:

- 1. Tax Administration Themes: Tax Reforms, Digital economy, Illicit trade, Block chain/Big Data Management, E-commerce, and Technological innovations in Revenue Administration
- 2. Customs Administration Themes: Customs Reforms, Trade Facilitation, Trade and non-trade barriers, Big Data in Customs management, Integrated Customs Management System, One Stop Boarder Post

This is to request you to nominate (2) participants to attend the conference and present research papers as per subthemes.

Papers that cover significant recent developments in the field, both of a foundational and applicable character shall be published in the African Tax and Customs Review (ATCR), a quarterly journal sponsored by Kenya School of Revenue Administration and a host of regional and international partners.

To register visit <https://atcr.kra.go.ke/ojs/index.php/atcr/index> or contact Iris/Makanga/on +254 709 013 161.
