THE KENYA PROPERTY DEVELOPERS ASSOCIATION

CODE OF CONDUCT

'The time is always right to do what is right'

Martin Luther King 1929 - 1968, American leader of the civil rights movement and Nobel Peace Prize winner

KPDA Vision:

"Creating a value driven, sustainable and socially responsible real estate industry."

KPDA Mission Statement:

"To promote the involvement of the private sector in development through advocacy, education, research and ethical standards."

PREAMBLE

In an attempt to manage the Kenyan property development's ethical status, KPDA encourages all its members to avoid costs associated with negative ideals and instead gain the benefits of sound standards of behaviour. Therefore in order to actively promote the importance of virtues and the value of proactively managing ethics amongst its members, the Association emphasizes that sound business values should be viewed as a source of competitive advantage, and building moral capital should be every corporate's goal.

One of KPDA's core interests is to further an ethical business code in the property development industry in Kenya by consolidating and maintaining high business values in our member companies. Members are encouraged to promote ethos and integrity amongst themselves within the property development industry, as well as recognize that unscrupulous conduct by any of its members have adverse repercussions on the reputation, functioning and sustainability of the entire building industry.

KPDA members and their employee representatives are committed to promoting the highest level of professionalism, integrity, and ability available in the property development industry in all its forms. This demonstrates how members embrace the KPDA mandate to achieve and maintain uniformly high professional and ethical standards throughout the property development industry in Kenya.

The development of the property development industry will be enhanced when all stakeholders comply with the KPDA Code of Conduct which covers:

- ❖ Knowledge of and compliance with relevant laws, practice circulars and guidelines, and essential facts;
- ❖ Due diligence and compliance with law and statutory requirements;
- ❖ General duty to clients and public;
- ❖ Prohibition against bringing discredit or disrepute to the real estate industry;
- ❖ Duty to clients in relation to signing of documents;
- ❖ Obligations in respect of agreements;

- ❖ Obligation in conveying offers and counter offers;
- ❖ Interpretation or translation if necessary;
- ❖ Duties in respect of advertisements;
- ❖ Duty to avoid conflict of interests;
- ❖ Recommending professional advice where appropriate;
- ❖ Safeguarding confidential information

This Code of Conduct is designed to foster trust and mutual respect amongst those working in the real estate industry. It is not intended to discourage fair and healthy competition within the industry, but to increase the esteem of the employers, their employees and the individuals who have earned them. We consider industry relationships critical to the industry's success.

The Kenya Property Developers Association (hereinafter "KPDA") and each member have agreed to adhere to and enforce the following Code of Conduct:

COMPANY STANDARDS

EVERY MEMBER OF KPDA SHALL:

1. Be legally registered as a company and maintain current business, tax and regulatory permits required by law.
2. Uphold sound corporate governance in the administration of their business.
3. Operate from a permanent address with all the necessary facilities and equipment to conduct business in an efficient, thorough and timely manner.
